The People kneel down as the service of Benediction begins. The Priest and Server go to the Altar and prepare incense. Then, taking the Blessed Sacrament from the Tabernacle, the Priest places it in the Monstrance. The Priest kneels and censes the Blessed Sacrament as the hymn, [NOTE: If hymns are not sung the Monstrance will be charged and placed in public view. A thurible may then be used to cense the Holy Sacrament. Alternatively the hymns may be said)

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

A time of silent adoration is observed. Then, during the second line of the hymn Now my tongue the mystery telling, all humbly bow. Incense is offered once again during verses 5 and 6 of the hymn.

The Priest then stands and says: Thou gavest them bread from heaven
People: Containing in itself all sweetness

Priest: Let us pray.

O God, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of thy Passion: Grant us, we beseech thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruits of thy redemption; who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

The Benediction with the Blessed Sacrament

The Priest receives the humeral veil on his shoulders. Then he goes up to the Altar, takes the Monstrance into his hands, and turns towards the People. The Priest gives the Benediction, making the sign of the cross over the kneeling congregation in silence. At the same time, the sanctus bell is rung three times and the Server censes the Blessed Sacrament. Placing the Monstrance back on the Altar and giving up the humeral veil, the Priest kneels and begins

The Divine Praises

The People repeat each line after the Priest who says

Blessed be God.

Blessed be his holy Name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man.

Blessed be the Name of Jesus.

Blessed be his most Sacred Heart.

Blessed be his most Precious Blood.

Blessed be Jesus in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

Blessed be the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.

Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.

Blessed be Saint Joseph, her most chaste spouse.

Blessed be God in his angels and in his saints.

A hymn may be sung as the Priest moves the Monstrance to its proper placement for continuing Adoration (if possible) The service ends with the hymn or else with this psalm.

Antiphon: Let us for ever adore: *
the most holy Sacrament.

Psalm 117 Laudate Dominum

O praise the LORD, all ye nations; *

Praise him, all ye peoples.

For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us; *

and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the LORD.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, *

and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, *

world without end. Amen.

Antiphon: Let us for ever adore: *
the most holy Sacrament.

An Editorial Comment by Fr. Bill Terry+

At St. Anna's we can say at least this: we are blessed to know and understand that Christ is Present in the Eucharist. We can also, with clarity say, that an honoring of this belief and a special time set aside for prayer and adoration of this promise of real presence is implicit in Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This ritual act further points to the divine presence beyond our immediate understanding and thus we hold the Eucharist to be a Holy Mystery. Therefore, beautiful worship, understood to be an honoring of Christ's presence in a unique and special way promised by Him is what we are about in this act. It is not, nor should it become, a replacement for the Holy Eucharist - but it is a time set aside to adore Christ manifest among us.
