

SCHEDULE 2023

For: Altar Servers, Preachers, and Readers with Annotations

Abstract

As many of you may know 2023 is Fr. Terry's last year as Rector of Saint Anna's Church. As such you will also note a few new services other than Sunday worship. Those are occasions for volunteers to join us for some of these unique services. You are encouraged to contact Fr. Terry at your earliest if you are willing to volunteer to be involved in one or more of these services. Examples of the unique services include Solemn Choral Evensong, Corpus Christi Procession, and worship etc. You will also note a schedule for Preachers.

Contact: Fr. Bill Terry

Notes: If you cannot serve when you are scheduled YOU must find a replacement and notify Luigi
* (Both) denotes that the reader will read both lessons and possibly the psalm (check with the priest re: psalm it may be sung)
RED LETTER DAYS should be considered important days in our liturgical calendar, and you are encouraged to attend if possible.

++Ash Wednesday volunteers are requested for the 6 p.m. service. However, if you wish to serve as acolyte or thurifer at the noon service you are invited to just let Fr. Terry know via email.

#Solemn Choral Evensong April 30th at 5:00 p.m. Feast of Philip and James Apostles (tr). This will be a full choral evensong with choir followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

*The Feast of Corpus Christi: This feast will be open to the Diocese of Louisiana and in particular the Downtown Deanery. So, several clergy may attend. The various roles required are ideally: (2) Thurifers (4) Canopy Bearers (2) Crucifers (and one acolyte). We will either have a walking choir with us or The Storyville Stompers Brass Band. It will be a

July 23 Feast of St. Anna Mass: This Mass will feature a procession with the Statue of Anna (the small one) and Anna Icon and Banners. It will be led by the Storyville Stompers. We will need volunteers to carry the statue. I should be on a wheeled art to be fabricated. Then carried into the church via the center aisle and placed in front of the altar. If you wish to be a part of the altar party in some way, please contact Fr. Terry via email.
